We Are Still Moving

We have torn one warehouse down and are clearing the goods out of another as fast as we can.

Our moving sale last week on Bicycle Lamps was a great success, we have cleaned out all the stock of lamps that we put aside for special sale. We are now going to offer a limited number of Bicycles at lower prices than ever offered before so that we will not have to move them to our new quarters.

Columbia Chainless Bicycles.....$75.00
Columbia Chain Bicycles..... 55.00
Hartford Chain Bicycles..... 40.00
Vedette Chain Bicycles..... 30.00

This offer only applies to our present stock which we do not wish to have to move, when they are gone prices will go back to the same as in the past. This is your chance to get a valuable Christmas present, one that will be appreciated.

If you are looking for JUVENILE WHEELS for the little folks just bear in mind that we have a good stock and can suit you.
We rent Chainless Columbias by the day week or month.

Funeral of John A. Hassinger, Jr.

There was a large attendance at the funeral of John A. Hassinger, Jr., held at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon from the family home at the corner of Keamoku and Young streets. Those present for the services and following the remains to Nuuanu cemetery included a host of friends of the youth and acquaintances of the family. The casket was covered with wreaths and other floral pieces and a large number were banded around the room. The hymns "Safe in the Arms of Jesus" and "Nearer My God to Thee" were rendered by a quartet composed of Miss K. Ward, Miss von Holt, Mr. Arthur Wall and Mr. Ernest Ross. Mr. Wray Taylor was at the piano. The officiating clergyman was the Rev. Alexander Mackintosh of St. Andrew's Episcopal church. The pall bearers were Messrs. John and Wm. Soper, Wm. Schmidt, George Fuller, Allan Judd and Donald Ross, all young friends of the deceased.

The artist at work in KING BROS., Hotel street, show window is attracting no little attention by his skillful handling of the brush. It is most interesting to watch him color Island views and especially the one showing a panoramic view of the city from Punch-bowl. Many of which have been sent abroad as Xmas gifts.

NEW TO-DAY
